The first midterm exam will take place on Monday, 4 March 2019, during class. It will be 50 minutes long, starting promptly at 12:00 pm (noon), and at 1.30 pm, respectively.

Sections 1, 2:
You take your exam in our usual classroom Mergenthaler 111 starting at 12:00 pm (noon).

Section 3:
You take your exam in Hackerman 320 starting at 12:00 pm (noon).

Sections 4, 5, 6:
You take your exam in our usual classroom Mergenthaler 111 starting at 1.30 pm.

Section 7:
You take your exam in Ames 218 starting at 1.30 pm.

Section 8:
You take your exam in Shaffer 202 starting at 12:00 pm (noon).

Students needing special testing accomodations:
You should by now have registered with the SDS office. You have to put in a request to SDS to take the exam at the SDS office around the same time as everyone else in your section.

Absences
If you have an unexcused absence from the exam, you will get a score of 0.
If you have an excused absence, your score will be calculated based on your performance on all remaining exams.
In order to be excused from the exam, you have to provide documentation and a valid excuse.

The exam
You will not be allowed to use any textbooks, notes, calculators, cellphones or other devices in the exam.
On the first page of the exam you will have to write down your name and your section number.

There has to be at least one empty seat between any two students. Please make sure that this is the case from the beginning.

If you have any questions or concerns, come to see me after class or in my office hours or send me an email.
Good luck and all the best for the exam!
